

Vulnerability Assessment

Client Overview: Leading financial services conglomerate with Pan India operations

Situation

- e-business exposes mission critical data in application systems/ servers to external.
- Hackers need only discover single entry point vulnerability to breach the system & inflict damage or exploit sensitive data.
- Need to undertake security risk assessment involving vulnerability assessments

Solution

- Timely vulnerability assessments of company applications, databases, network and mission critical servers' configuration.
- These assessments are must for a part of an ongoing managed IT security services, designed to function & augment overall security strategies of the enterprise.

